FUTILE IS FIGHT BY ATTORNEYS ON PROPOSALS

Constitutional Convention Adopts Peck Proposal.

JUDICIAL MACHINERY OILED

Will Expedite Court Procedure in Ohio If Ratified by People — Permits Only One Trial and One Appeal and Changes Circuit Courts to Courts of Appeals—Effort to Incorporate Bank Deposit Guarantee Section in Constitution Fails.

Columbus, O., April 11.—In the face of bitter opposition from lawyers throughout the state, the constitutional convention adopted the Peck judicial reform proposal early today one of the most important subjects yet taken up by it. Judge Peck of Cincinnati, a retired jurist, and the laymen, who put the proposal through. The proposal, if approved by the people, is expected to do away with many of "law's delays."

One trial, before either judge or jury and one review by a higher court, is the essence of the proposal. In brief, the proposal leaves the present supreme court of said judges unchanged in number, changes the present circuit courts to courts of appeal and gives them final jurisdiction in all cases save felonies and those involving constitutional questions. It details common ideas.

Where Interest in the Coal
Strike Is Real and Vital

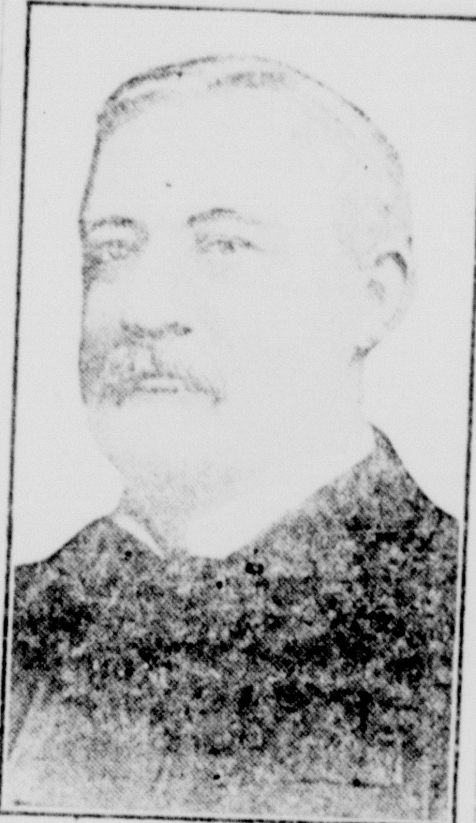

Photos by American Press Association.

Anticipation of the conference between the leaders of the United Mine Workers and the anthracite coal operators about 175,000 miners in eastern Pennsylvania entered upon a period of idleness that can hardly be called a strike, so calmly has it been accepted by both parties to the dispute. This, with the similar action on the part of the bituminous miners, brings the total number of idle mine workers up to the half million mark. The strike naturally involves the suspension of work in railroad repair shops, but a suspension of work for a short time will have none of the disastrous effects experienced in England as a result of the great coal strike there. What a long continued strike would mean to the anthracite towns, in many of which the whole male population—even many of the children—is engaged in the work of the mines, may readily be imagined. The photographs show—at the top, a typical street in an anthracite mining town; at the bottom, a group of miners' children; at the left, a veteran miner as he left work at the order of his union.

Vorys Says No Reason For Gloom

A. L. Vorys Sees Nothing Discouraging in Illinois Result.

Columbus, O., April 11.—Hon. A. L. Vorys, Republican national committeeman from Ohio, made the following statement on the result in Illinois:

"Because of local conditions and prejudices in Illinois and the campaign of misrepresentation, we have been apprehensive about that state. The result is not surprising. The Ohio supporters of the president who have assumed Ohio would be for Taft without effort, will be spurred to greater activity. The campaign for Taft in Ohio will go forward with redoubled energy. It will be aggressive and President Taft will have the Ohio delegation to the Chicago convention. Such pretenses as that the president and his friends are afraid to trust the people and the like, intended to divert the public mind from the meritorious issues, will not succeed in Ohio. Four years ago Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania and New York were against Taft in the preliminary campaign, but his friends were always confident. The convention nominated him and he carried all these states at the election. So now we are not discouraged by the Illinois primary, but now, as then, we confidently expect his nomination and election."

Gambler's Jag Proves Fatal

Supposed Gambler Drinks Himself to Death on Liner.

New York, April 11.—The White Star liner Olympic brought in a variety of rumors about the death of a first cabin passenger, Barton G. Harvey, whose cards gave his address as "Pasadena Country Club, Pasadena, Cal." One story was that he was a professional gambler and that he had been done up by another gambler, or a group of gamblers, for cheating, and had gone to his berth and died of his hurts. Another story was that he had been done to death in his stateroom. The fact seems to be that he had been drinking heavily and that his heart gave out.

REBELS SHOOT YANKEE CITIZEN

Given Chance to Escape and Killed by "Planted" Guards.

El Paso, Tex., April 11.—Albert Fountain of Las Cruces, N. M., son of a noted lawyer of that state, was executed by Mexican rebels at Parral. He was killed for having operated a machine gun against them while they were attacking the town. Details were sent to El Paso by a courier. He was given a chance to "escape" and shot by guards "planted" for the purpose.

Fountain who had been working in the mines around Parral as a shift foreman, was thrown out of work a few weeks ago, when the mines were forced to close down.

Pancho Villa, commanding the federal artillery, offered Fountain the job of working a machine gun. Fountain was in command of a gun throughout the three-day battle before the rebels beat Villa back out of the city. When the rebels captured the town Fountain had part of the mechanism of the gun and took refuge in a drug store, where the rebels later found him.

Society Girl a Suicide.

Pasadena, Cal., April 11.—Miss Louise Kastenbine, 25, prominent in Pasadena society, was found shot dead in her room. A revolver lay on the floor beside the body and the wound appeared to have been self-inflicted.

HOUSE SWEEP AWAY BY FLOOD THIRTY DEAD

Unconfirmed Rumor Comes From Flood District.

St. Louis, April 11.—The Mississippi flood continued its way southward but indications are the back of the flood has been broken and the river will fall rapidly from now on. Greenville, Miss., reports a rise of three-tenths of a foot, and the situation there is critical.

A report received at the United States engineers' office at Memphis from a government employee says 20 people were drowned near Wilson, Ark., when a house in which they were marooned gave way and was swept to pieces by the running waters. The report has not been confirmed.

Wilson is under eight feet of water and 500,000 additional acres of rich land in the St. Francis basin is flooded as the result of a break at Wilson.

The flood is becoming serious at New Orleans, Greenville, Miss., Natchez and Vicksburg and other southern points. Armed forces are patrolling the levees at New Orleans.

MINERS RECEIVE PEACE PACT

Operators Agree to Submit Controversy to Commission.

OFFER NOT YET ACCEPTED

Hard Coal Diggers Not Ready to Drop Their Fight For Recognition of the Union and Philadelphia Conference Turns Wage Agreement Over to Subcommittee in Hope That Scale Will Be Signed With out Reference to Outside Parties.

Philadelphia, April 11.—As the result of the conferences held in this city, a settlement of the differences between the anthracite operators and miners seems inevitable.

The coal operators let down the bars of their absolute refusal to consider the demands made by the United Mine Workers and offered to submit the entire differences to the anthracite strike commission appointed in 1902 by former President Roosevelt for arbitration.

This offer will be held in abeyance by President White of the mine workers until a subcommittee of the miners and operators can further discuss the nine demands made by the miners. The committee is in session today in the Reading Terminal and carefully go over the demands made by the miners, with a view of reaching an agreement without recourse to the strike commission. If an agreement is reached the operators and miners will again meet and consider their findings. In event of a failure to report a satisfactory agreement the general question of the strike commission will be further discussed.

Both miners and operators expressed their satisfaction at the turn of conditions and voiced the expression that a strike may be averted.

RAPS CORPORATION LAWYERS

In Comment on "Independent Judiciary Association" He Declares That Men Who Have Served Big Interests in Legal Capacity Are Unable to Think of Judge Except as an Instrument to Protect Privilege Against Rights of People.

Philadelphia, April 11.—Colonel Roosevelt's opening attack in his Philadelphia speech before 5,000 people in the Metropolitan opera house was on the Union League clubs of New York and Philadelphia, which have condemned his new doctrines of government and endorsed President Taft.

The colonel applied a quotation from Lincoln condemning the "slip stocking Whiggery" of his time for obstructing the interests of the people to the two Union League clubs.

"It is treachery to the past for these two clubs, now in their old age, to rank themselves with the bosses against the plain people," said the colonel.

The colonel put Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler in the class of his "embattled attorneys" representing special privilege, including him, not by name, under the head, "an embattled college president who was standing for the special interests." The colonel's falsetto brought a big laugh from his audience.

Colonel Roosevelt said in part: "In the New York World appears a detailed statement that some very eminent lawyers of New York have undertaken the formation of what they style the Independent Judiciary association. They propose to use their own words, 'to combat the spread of two ideas, namely, the recall of judges and the referendum to the people of a certain class of cases of judicial decisions, and they assert, in President Taft's words, that 'these ideas lay the axe at the root of the tree of well-ordered freedom.'"

Known by Their Company.

"Many of the signers are distinguished men, standing high in their community; but we can gain a clew as to just what kind of well-ordered freedom to the defense of which they are rushing when we see among the signers of this call the names of attorneys for a number of corporations not distinguished for a high keyed sense of civic duty or for their disinterested conduct toward the public, such as for instance, the Standard Oil company, the sugar trust, the American Tobacco company, the Metropolitan Traction company of New York and certain defunct corporations the looting of which has passed into the history of financial and stockjobbing scandal and forms one of its blackest chapters.

"Let me repeat that I do not question the good purpose of some of these gentlemen. But it is impossible to credit them with good faith in the fear that they have expressed in the sentences I have above quoted, except on the supposition that their long experience as attorneys for corporations has finally rendered them genuinely unable to understand justice and genuinely unable to think of a judge except as an instrument devised to protect privilege against the rights of the people by invoking the technicalities of the law for the purpose of preventing the obtaining of justice under the law."

Columbus, O., April 11.—The friends of A. P. Sandles, secretary of the board of agriculture, are urging him to enter the race for governor. It is argued that he has the necessary qualifications, is a forceful speaker and no doubt would get the undivided votes of the Democrats of Ohio.

No Park Benches Along Court Street

The County Commissioners have decided that the park benches on the court house lawn will not be placed along the sidewalk on Court street this year, but will be extended down the alley opposite the Midland bank, and along the cement walk on the west side of the lawn.

A great deal of protest has been made in past years because the benches along the sidewalk afforded a comfortable place for loafers, who did little but ogle the ladies as they passed by, and the place has become shunned by ladies in the summer time.

Moving the seats will eliminate the objectionable feature, and this will be done accordingly within the next few days.

CORPORATIONS PAYING LESS

Increased Taxes Are Under One Per Cent. Law Paid by Farmer. Corporations Contribute Less to Cost of Government.

Law Seems Failure So Far as Helping Owners of Real Estate Is Concerned—Figures Are Convincing Argument.

The owners of real estate whether of farm lands or city property have not been pleased with the operation of the one per cent tax rate limit law up to this time, but they have many of them, not yet figured out to their own satisfaction just where the trouble is located.

While a great parade has been made about the lower tax rate and the one per cent limit, yet real estate owners have not seen any substantial decrease in the amount of taxes they are compelled to pay. In many cases substantial increases in tax payments have resulted since the law has been in effect.

same rail roads on the new valuation was $14,382.80. A decrease of taxes paid of $1,346.16. The telephone companies under the new valuation show a net decrease in taxes assessed of $95.52. The telegraph companies show a decrease in actual taxes assessed of $102.82. The express companies show a decrease in taxes assessed of $38.53. The Washington Water Company and the Washington Gas and Electric Company show an increase of taxes assessed.

These facts and figures which have been taken from the compilation made by the Fayette County officials may tend to explain why real estate is having such tough shelling and the public utilities corporations the boosting of the value of the property which has been so loudly and so emphatically proclaimed as being one of the beneficial results flowing from the big, ribbon legislation of the last decade—the one per cent limit law.

Now on the other side of the picture, the figures so far compiled warrant the following statement of fact:

One hundred farmers in Wayne Township having farms ranging from forty to three hundred and twenty acres were assessed for the year 1910 $3,919.18.

One hundred farmers in Wayne Township having farms ranging from forty to three hundred and twenty acres were assessed for the year 1911 $3,919.18.

Boy Filed Affidavit For Another Party

Burt Wisecoop was arraigned before Mayor Smith Thursday morning, charged with carrying concealed weapons. The affidavit had been filed by Jacob R. Jones, a boy of 13 years, and when he was placed upon the stand, said that he had never seen the gun he supposed Wisecoop carried, and that he had been "put up" to filing the affidavit by one Geo. Woodward, whom Wisecoop claims has been hanging about his home.

Young Jones said Woodward had urged him to file the "affidavit" charging the carrying of "concealed weapons" and that Woodward had "a hand in the affidavit."

Wisecoop claimed that Jones had drawn an axe upon him and threatened an axe upon him and threatened 1911 An increase of $4,022.98. One hundred farmers in Fayette County having farms ranging from forty to three hundred and twenty acres were assessed for the year 1910 $3,268.24. One hundred farmers in Fayette County having farms ranging from forty to three hundred and twenty acres were assessed for the year 1911 $4,153.16. An increase of $884.42.

The valuation of the property of public utilities corporations and financial institutions is entirely without the province of the local officials. That duty is taken away from county officials and given to the State Tax Commission appointed by the Governor.

The figures show that the much touted one percent limit tax law does the real estate owners all the worst of the deal.

There must be so much money raised each year to defray the expense of running the various branches of government and every cent of that expense which is not taxed against the personal property must be made up by the tax which real estate pays. Boosting valuations does not avail unless it be to an extent equal to the cut in the rate.

The increased valuation placed by the Governor's State Tax Commission on personal property being less proportionately than the reduction in the rate which the limit law compels the result is apparent. The amount of taxes which utilities corporations pay is less and real estate must make up the shortage.

Jones Amendment Is Voted Down

In connection with the Park compromise proposal which was adopted by the Constitutional convention Wednesday, was an amendment submitted by Fayette county delegate, Hon. Humphrey Jones, providing that when a Common Pleas court decision is reversed by the Appellate court, the case can be taken to the Supreme court on questions of law.

The above amendment, together with others, was voted down in the convention.

No Park Benches Along Court Street

The County Commissioners have decided that the park benches on the court house lawn will not be placed along the sidewalk on Court street this year, but will be extended down the alley opposite the Midland bank, and along the cement walk on the west side of the lawn.

A great deal of protest has been made in past years because the benches along the sidewalk afforded a comfortable place for loafers, who did little but ogle the ladies as they passed by, and the place has become shunned by ladies in the summer time.

Moving the seats will eliminate the objectionable feature, and this will be done accordingly within the next few days.

Gerhardt Road Case Still Up

The Gerhardt road case has been up in the probate court all week, and the details are being thrashed out at great length. The trial is before a jury, and the jurymen are very restless owing to the desire of many of them to get into their farming work which is demanding attention.

Farmer Pays Fiddler Under New Tax System

CORPORATIONS PAYING LESS

Increased Taxes Are Under One Per Cent. Law Paid by Farmer. Corporations Contribute Less to Cost of Government.

Law Seems Failure So Far as Helping Owners of Real Estate Is Concerned—Figures Are Convincing Argument.

The owners of real estate whether of farm lands or city property have not been pleased with the operation of the one per cent tax rate limit law up to this time, but they have many of them, not yet figured out to their own satisfaction just where the trouble is located.

While a great parade has been made about the lower tax rate and the one per cent limit, yet real estate owners have not seen any substantial decrease in the amount of taxes they are compelled to pay. In many cases substantial increases in tax payments have resulted since the law has been in effect.

same rail roads on the new valuation was $14,382.80. A decrease of taxes paid of $1,340.16. The telephone companies under the new valuation show a net decrease in taxes assessed of $55.52. The telegraph companies show a decrease in actual taxes assessed of $102.82. The express companies show a decrease in taxes assessed of $38.53. The Washington Water Company and the Washington Gas and Electric Company show an increase of taxes assessed.

These facts and figures which have been taken from the compilation made by the Fayette County officials may tend to explain why real estate is having such rough sledding and the public utilities corporations the boosting of the value of the property which has been so loudly and so emphatically proclaimed as only one of the beneficial results flowing from the big ribbon legislation of the last decade—the one per cent limit law.

Now on the other side of the picture, the figures so far compiled warrant the following statement of fact.

One hundred farmers in Wayne Township having farms ranging from forty to three hundred and twenty acres were assessed for the year 1910 $3,919.18.

One hundred farmers in Wayne Township having farms ranging from forty to three hundred and twenty acres were assessed for the year 1911 $3,919.18.

Boy Filed Affidavit For Another Party

Burt Wisecoop was arraigned before Mayor Smith Thursday morning, charged with carrying concealed weapons. The affidavit had been filed by Jacob R. Jones, a boy of 13 years, and when he was placed upon the stand, said that he had never seen the gun he supposed Wisecoop carried, and that he had been "put up" to filing the affidavit by one Geo. Woodward, whom Wisecoop claims has been hanging about his home.

Young Jones said Woodward had urged him to file the "hagavit," charging the carrying of "sealed weapons" and that Woodward had "a hand in the 'hagavit'."

Wisecoop claimed that Jones had drawn an axe upon him and threat-

1911 $4,022.98. An increase of $1,003.80. One hundred farmers in Fayette County having farms ranging from forty to three hundred and twenty acres were assessed for the year 1910 $3,268.24. One hundred farmers in Fayette County having farms ranging from forty to three hundred and twenty acres were assessed for the year 1911 $4,153.16. An increase of $884.42. The valuation of the property of public utilities corporations and financial institutions is entirely without the province of the local officials. That duty is taken away from county officials and given to the State Tax Commission appointed by the Governor.

The figures show that the much touted one percent limit tax law gives the real estate owners all the worst of the deal.

There must be so much money raised each year to defray the expense of running the various branches of government and every cent of that expense which is not taxed against the personal property must be made up by the tax which real estate pays. Boosting valuations does not avail unless it be to an extent equal to the cut in the rate.

The increased valuation placed by the Governor's State Tax Commission on personal property being less proportionately than the reduction in the rate which the limit law compels the result is apparent. The amount of taxes which utilities corporations pay is less and real estate must make up the shortage.

Old Gibraltar: (noun) see Fred Clarke.

That's what he is—Old Faithful. You can depend on him 364 days out of the year and if he turns up missing on the three hundred and sixty-fifth you may know some doctor has a thermometer under his tongue and his thumb on his pulse.

He was born on a farm in Madison County, Iowa, thirty-nine years ago, and did not talk until he was old enough to harness a horse alone, and never since has he said more than three sentences and four goldfishes in succession. Before he utters a complete sentence outside the ball park he gets out the cover-driver, the die cutter and the alligator wrench.

He goes all over his vocal apparatus, chokes once, strains for a start and then puts a period at the end of the fifth word. The only time he can use two sentences in succession without getting rosy behind his ears is when he describes his thoroughbred bellers.

One Saturday when he was seventeen years old, after he had got the jimson weeds all cut, lime sprinkled on the cucumber vines and the rock salt laid out for the cattle in the back forty, he went to Omaha where he saw his first professional game of baseball. It excited him so that he didn't sleep for three nights, and when he went back home and told the rest of the fellows that the players all had a full suit apiece they nearly hurt themselves laughing and said Fred was trying to put on airs just because he had been to the city. His first game was played with the

He is one of the wealthiest men in the business, having such a big stock farm at his home near Winfield, Kansas, that he has to get down a plat map of Cowley County to remember how much land he has. It's so large that it takes two automobiles and five hired men to run it.

He has two daughters and a phonograph. His was the first phonograph ever seen in that part of Kansas, the natives coming for miles and miles on Sunday afternoons to look at it, and then going away believing that Fred was playing a joke on them. They wouldn't believe it could talk until they looked Fred up in the kitchen and put the thing out in the front yard on a culvert tile of trailing arbutus.

He is a farmer's friend from the word go and would rather talk about Duros in the back lot than about the best Bolognese ever hung in the Metropolitan museum.

The only habit, hobby or whoopla of the man who for ten years battled over 300 who won four N. L. pennants and one world championship, is chewing a toothpick. He is rough on toothpicks, beginning on them in the morning as soon as he gets one foot through and keeping it up all day until the Pullman porter begins hunting for the boys' shoes.

When Fred Clarke wants to have a disporting time he drives a friend out to the hog yard in his auto, hangs one knee over the steering wheel, puts in a fresh toothpick and throws out a handful of shelled corn for his Duros.

Regular Army Officers Praise Local Militiamen

Inspection Finds Company M in Excellent Condition in Every Way—Captain Howard Allen Tenders Resignation.

The annual inspection of Company M by regular army officers took place Wednesday evening at the Armory. Col. A. C. Sharpe of the United States regular army, assisted by Capt. Kirland of the O. N. G. Signal corps at Toledo, had charge of the inspection.

In the afternoon the property of Company M was inspected in 45 minutes, which was 15 minutes less time than has been required to inspect any other company in the state so far inspected by Col. Sharpe. This was due to the careful manner in which all of the property is kept in place. The property was found to be in tip-top condition, and when the men underwent a rigid inspection in the evening, the company was pronounced in excellent condition. "Every letter of 'excellent' to be spelled with a capital letter," said Col. Sharpe. Both officers praised the company's high class condition.

The company appeared in olive drab uniform, and if a call for immediate mobilization had come, could have marched out of the armory without falling out of line, and would have had full equipment for field service. The men were also put through all manner of drills, responding promptly to every command given, and at all times maintaining the most perfect order.

Thursday morning Captain Howard Allen surprised the company by tendering his resignation, having so much other work to occupy his time that he could not devote as much time to militia duties as he desired. If the resignation is accepted, First Lieutenant Horace Ireland will be in line for the position of Captain.

Capt. Allen has been in the service 10 years, and has filled the various positions with honor, being recognized as one of the best captains of Ohio National Guardsmen, and his resignation will be received by the higher officers with a feeling of deep regret.

In losing such a valuable officer, Wednesday night he was praised by the inspecting officers for the superb condition of his company.

Fine Lecturer
Will Deliver
Address Sunday

Dr. J. Knox Montgomery

The Y. M. C. A. has secured Dr. J. Knox Montgomery, president of the Muskingum college, to deliver two lectures here on the coming Sunday. In the afternoon at three o'clock he will address a mass meeting for men at the Christian church on the subject "Hang Out Your Sign." In the evening Dr. Montgomery will deliver his noted lecture, "The Building of a Man" at a Union service in Grace M. E. church.

The evening lecture is one which appeals especially to young people and is on the popular order.

Dr. Montgomery has entered on his 15th season on the Lyceum and Chautauqua platforms and has been listened to with breathless interest by tens of thousands from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico. A native of Tennessee he has the fervor and polish of the Southern orator, and delivers his message with the intensity of a man convinced of its truth.

Under Dr. Montgomery's able regime Muskingum college has made wonderful progress and he is thoroughly in sympathy with young people and their interests.

Mr. Zaner, Y. M. C. A. secretary, has been most fortunate in securing Dr. Montgomery for Sunday and the lecturer will undoubtedly be greeted by crowded houses.

Posse On Hunt

A hundred armed men, headed by Sheriff Givens of Pike county, have been scouring the hills in search of a man who attacked Mrs. John Friedley, wife of a farmer near Waverly. Wednesday night the posse surrounded a large piece of timberland in which it was believed the man was hiding, and in which the assault took place. The assailant of Mrs. Friedley is unknown, having appeared at her home and asked for something to eat. Upon learning that the woman was alone he attacked her, and a posse was quickly organized to catch the fellow, but so far they have been unable to do so.

Colonial Theater

The Dazzling Durbar, in all its regal grandeur, will be revealed when that marvelous invention, the Kinemacolor, comes to the Colonial theater, in Columbus, for one week, beginning Sunday, April 14th, with matinees daily except Sunday.

These wonderful motion pictures show a barbaric blending of color that could be found nowhere else but in primitive India. Potentates, are seen riding, charging, accompanied with silver and gold cloth, slave girls, Hindu dancers, Nautch dancers, regiment upon regiment of mounted and foot soldiery, and all the sacred animals of the Orient, from tiny oxen to herds of ponderous elephants, forming a pageant more wonderful than any ever staged before, even on "India's Coral Strand."

The presentation of the Durbar in "Kinemacolor" at the Colonial in Columbus, will include the following pleasing and educational procession: "The Royal Visit to Bombay," "Preparing for the Durbar," "The Arrival of the King and Queen," "The State Entry into Delhi," "The King's Camp and the Reception to the East Indian Princess," "The State Garden Party," "The Point to Point Horse Races," "The Polo Tournament at Delhi," "The Elephant Stockade," "Preparing the Royal Animals for the Pageants," "Scenes in the Durbar Camp," "The Grand Review by the King-Emperor of 50,000 British and Native Troops," and one hundred other events which, by all odds, are the most wonderful scenes ever produced by any but "Nature's Own Necromancy—Kinemacolor."

Cause Annoyance

"Just look at that!" exclaimed an irate business man Wednesday evening as he pointed to one of his show windows in which there was a particularly choice display of goods, and which was lighted by brilliant incandescent electric bulbs forming part of the "great white way" on Court street.

The display was hardly visible, however, as the window ledge was affording a seat for half a dozen loafers who had been sitting in the same spot for an hour, while the merchant's electric light bill was crawling up higher, lighting a display that was concealed by the men in the window. The man expressed himself in no uncertain terms about the practice of loafing before the display windows and concealing the display arranged at considerable time and cost.

The acreage of oats this year will be the largest ever sown in Fayette county, it is claimed. Oat sowing commenced this week, and thousands of acres are being sown.

CHINA'S AWAKENING.

Dr. Sun Yat Sen has formally turned over the reins of government to his successor. The foreign powers are preparing to loan China all the money it needs to reorganize the government and put things on a practical basis. Some disorder still exists, but there is every indication that the government will be able to suppress the bandits and outlaws, and preserve peace, while effecting the great changes contemplated in political, commercial and sociological conditions in their republic.

With the development of the vast and but partly understood resources of China, there will be need for many millions of dollars of foreign capital to build railways, establish steamship lines, install telegraph and telephone systems, open and develop mines, and to do all the things which should be done to bring to light the resources and the wealth of a great country. The course already pursued by the enlightened men who have control of China's destinies indicate that foreign capital will be fully protected and that there is a field in China for exploitation which can not prove other than very tempting and remunerative.

China and Mexico just now are presenting to the world the most alluring prospects for the ambitious young man and the most attractive possibilities for capital seeking investment.

The development in these two nations of great natural resources will be rapid and certain, once order is brought out of the chaos now existing.

China seems to have emerged and started down the broad highway which leads to light and prosperity, through peace and enterprise and the prospects for better conditions in Mexico are not nearly so dark at present as they were a few months ago.

With the awakening of China and peace in Mexico, the people of America, will, if wise foreign policies are adopted, have cause for congratulation. Both are naturally the logical fields for American enterprise to develop and rich will be the harvest gathered.

SOME NEW FIGURES.

Government reports show that scores of aeroplanes, thousands of automobiles, and millions of feet of motion picture film appear among the articles forming the foreign trade of the United States for the current fiscal year. The number of aeroplanes imported and exported during the fiscal year which ends 90 days hence will aggregate a half-hundred valued at approximately a quarter of a million dollars. The number of automobiles imported and exported will aggregate approximately twenty thousand, valued at about 25 million dollars. The motion picture film imported and exported will amount to 75 million feet in length, or sufficient to reach more than half way around the world.

The large proportion of this trade, as to aeroplanes, automobiles, and motion picture films, occurs in exports.

The growth in exports of aeroplanes, automobiles and motion picture films has been especially rapid. The record of exports of aeroplanes and motion picture films only began with the present fiscal year, and comparisons by years are not, therefore, possible. Of automobiles, however, the record extends back to the fiscal year 1902. During that period the exports have grown from $948,528 in 1902 to $17,594,336, in 1911 inclusive of automobile tires.

For the fiscal year now approaching its close the total exports of automobiles and parts, will approximate, if not exceed, 25 million dollars in value. In the meantime imports of automobiles have grown at a less rapid pace, from $500,000 in the fiscal year 1902 to $2,250,759 in 1911, and an indicated total of approximately $2,500,000 in the fiscal year 1912. The import figure for 1912 is, in fact, much less than that of the fiscal year 1907, when the total was nearly 5 million dollars, thus indicating a marked decline in recent years in importations, though the growth in exportations during the same period has been very large.

A large proportion of the motion picture film exported, more especially that to European countries, goes in form ready for exposure, the United States being now the principal film manufacturing country of the world. That imported is chiefly film which has been exposed, developed and ready for exhibition. Of the 61-2 million feet imported in the months referred to, 31-4 million were from France, 11-3 million from Italy, 1 million from England, two-thirds of a million from Denmark, and a quarter million feet from Germany; while small quantities were brought from Japan, Mexico, Scotland, Canada, Panama, and the Philippines.

These figures compiled by experts from the government records are stupendous and indicate unmistakably that a wonderful revolution in habit of living and method of amusement has taken place among the people on both sides of the world.

"Mary, did you see Mr. Jones in church Sunday?"

"Yes, Grace and I hardly recognized him, as I thought he was bald or nearly so. What has he done?"

"Well, Mary, Mrs. Jones told me that he has been using Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream and he is so pleased he can't talk about anything else."

"If people would only take care of their hair, keep the scalp free from dirt, dandruff and itching scales, with this English Tonic, Herb Shampoo, an abundance of healthy hair would be the result."

"I know a lot of people who are using Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream. They are all so enthusiastic over it. Blackmer & Tanquary—our local druggists—sell it; 25c a tube, enough for three or four shampoos."

CHINA'S AWAKENING.

Dr. Sun Yat Sen has formally turned over the reins of government to his successor. The foreign powers are preparing to loan China all the money it needs to reorganize the government and put things on a practical basis. Some disorder still exists, but there is every indication that the government will be able to suppress the bandits and outlaws, and preserve peace, while effecting the great changes contemplated in political, commercial and sociological conditions in their republic.

With the development of the vast and but partly understood resources of China, there will be need for many millions of dollars of foreign capital to build railways, establish steamship lines, install telegraph and telephone systems, open and develop mines, and to do all the things which should be done to bring to light the resources and the wealth of a great country. The course already pursued by the enlightened men who have control of China's destinies indicate that foreign capital will be fully protected and that there is a field in China for exploitation which can not prove other than very tempting and remunerative.

China and Mexico just now are presenting to the world the most alluring prospects for the ambitious young man and the most attractive possibilities for capital seeking investment.

The development in these two nations of great natural resources will be rapid and certain, once order is brought out of the chaos now existing.

China seems to have emerged and started down the broad highway which leads to light and prosperity, through peace and enterprise and the prospects for better conditions in Mexico are not nearly so dark at present as they were a few months ago.

With the awakening of China and peace in Mexico, the people of America, will, if wise foreign policies are adopted, have cause for congratulation. Both are naturally the logical fields for American enterprise to develop and rich will be the harvest gathered.

SOME NEW FIGURES.

Government reports show that scores of aeroplanes, thousands of automobiles, and millions of feet of motion picture film appear among the articles forming the foreign trade of the United States for the current fiscal year. The number of aeroplanes imported and exported during the fiscal year which ends 90 days hence will aggregate a half-hundred valued at approximately a quarter of a million dollars. The number of automobiles imported and exported will aggregate approximately twenty thousand, valued at about 25 million dollars. The motion picture film imported and exported will amount to 75 million feet in length, or sufficient to reach more than half way around the world.

The large proportion of this trade, as to aeroplanes, automobiles, and motion picture films, occurs in exports.

The growth in exports of aeroplanes, automobiles and motion picture films has been especially rapid. The record of exports of aeroplanes and motion picture films only began with the present fiscal year, and comparisons by years are not, therefore, possible. Of automobiles, however, the record extends back to the fiscal year 1902. During that period the exports have grown from $948,528 in 1902 to $17,594,336, in 1911 inclusive of automobile tires.

For the fiscal year now approaching its close the total exports of automobiles and parts, will approximate, if not exceed, 25 million dollars in value. In the meantime imports of automobiles have grown at a less rapid pace, from $500,000 in the fiscal year 1902 to $2,250,759 in 1911, and an indicated total of approximately $2,500,000 in the fiscal year 1912. The import figure for 1912 is, in fact, much less than that of the fiscal year 1907, when the total was nearly 5 million dollars, thus indicating a marked decline in recent years in importations, though the growth in exportations during the same period has been very large.

A large proportion of the motion picture film exported, more especially that to European countries, goes in form ready for exposure, the United States being now the principal film manufacturing country of the world. That imported is chiefly film which has been exposed, developed and ready for exhibition. Of the 6 1/2 million feet imported in the months referred to, 3 1/4 million were from France, 1 1/3 million from Italy, 1 million from England, two-thirds of a million from Denmark, and a quarter million feet from Germany; while small quantities were brought from Japan, Mexico, Scotland, Canada, Panama, and the Philippines.

These figures compiled by experts from the government records are stupendous and indicate unmistakably that a wonderful revolution in habit of living and method of amusement has taken place among the people on both sides of the world.

"THE SAME OLD DOPE."

He's a demon on the bases and a marvel at the bat;
He's like a streak of lightning and he's quicker than a cat.
He's faster than a bullet when he's chasing down a fly
But—as a major leaguer he is just a trifle shy.

Or—
He curves the pellet over a la Ma-thewson or Gregg;
He holds 'em to the bases with a swift unerring peg;
He's steadily improving and he's coming with a rush;
But—he needs another season in the Texas underbrush.

Or—
From present indications he is sure to land a job;
In action he's a ringer for the semi-titulating Cobb;
And, like the famous Georgian, he is muscular and tall;
But—he has one fatal weakness—he can seldom hit the ball.

And again—
In holding his position he is accurate and fast;
He's got the "Flying Dutchman" lashed securely to the mast.

OILING ORDINANCE PASSED BY COUNCIL

Brief Session Held Wednesday Night and Ordinance Passed to Rid City of Dust Nuisance by Oiling All Streets Where Two-thirds of Property Owners Petition for Same.

One of the first times in a great many years when all members of Council were present at a meeting held for the consideration of one matter, was that of Wednesday night when Council met to pass an ordinance to oil the streets, alleys, roads and squares of the city.

Upon motion of Rothrock the oiling ordinance, which had been prepared by Solicitor Rankin, was placed upon its first reading. The ordinance provides for the oiling of all streets, subject to a petition from a majority of the property owners in districts containing not less than 5,000 square yards of surface.

Upon application of a majority of the property owners, a contract for sprinkling the entire district is made, including the sprinkling of alleys, street intersections and the like. The ordinance was to be in effect for a period of five years, but objection was made to this proviso, which was changed to one year, so that no misunderstanding might be made in the length of contracts, or to limit contracts for oiling to one year.

The assessment for sprinkling with oil is to be paid within 30 days after the contract is made, and in one installment. Those who do not pay within the specified time will find an additional five per cent. penalty at the time of payment.

Peerless Iron Enamel For Renewing Grate Fronts

Delivering Bread on Skis In St. Moritz, Switzerland

ST. MORITZ is the most famous of all resorts for the devotees of winter sports, such as coasting, tobogganing, curling and skiing. The last named is not merely a sport, but a means of locomotion in the village streets with their frequent steep pitches, so that the baker's boy makes out attracting more attention than a messenger boy on a bicycle would here. In spite of its huge hotels St. Moritz still retains many of the characteristics of a Swiss village, and of a Sunday afternoon baker's boy and "duke's son, son of a belted earl," not to mention a few royal princes, may be seen skiing or tobogganing on the same slope. These are sports that level all ranks in more sense of the word than one.

During the discussion it was asked if the oiling was to be done subject to the approval of the Service Director, and the Solicitor held that the Service Director was the proper person to see that the oiling was done in the right manner.

Fred Mark asked what would be done if it was found that territory had been taken up in such a manner that less than a 5,000 square yard district remained and inquired if the districts could be made smaller. It was brought out that the law required that the districts be not less than 5,000 square yards.

The ordinance was eventually passed by a unanimous vote, after which adjournment was taken.

The Rat and His Board Bill

What composes his "bill-of-fare"? Anything and everything. He is practically omnivorous and eternally hungry. In the West Indies rats have destroyed hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of coffee, oranges and bananas on plantations. In Japan millions of dollars worth of rice. In Germany, rat losses amount to fifty million dollars a year. In the United States, 160 million dollars a year.

Rats eat seed and grain of all kind, flour, meal and food products made from them; fruits and garden vegetables; mushrooms, the bark of growing trees, bulbs, roots, stems, leaves and even flowers of plants, eggs, chicks, ducklings, squabs, young rabbits, milk, butter and cheese; fresh and salt meats, etc. This great variety of food explains the ease with which rats adapt themselves to any environment.

Experiments show that the average quantity of grain consumed by a full grown rat is fully two ounces daily. A half grown rat eats just about as much. Fed on grain a rat eats from forty-five to fifty pounds a year. Worse yet, they destroy, pollute and render unfit for human consumption much more than they actually eat. Rats are very fond of matches, especially those whose ends are dipped in paraffine, and by gnawing them, serious fires often occur. Fires and great losses in mills and warehouses have been traced to the spontaneous ignition of greasy, oily rags or waste carried under floors by mice.

But the commonest way in which rats cause fires is by gnawing away the insulating covering from electric wires passing under floors or inside of partitions, using the insulating materials for nests. Insurance companies a few years ago estimated the fire loss in the United States due to defective wiring, or rather insulation of wires at fifteen million dollars yearly, and since rats and mice are the chief agents in impairing insulation after the wires are in place, the bulk of this sum can be charged to them. Gave 16 Sons To Civil War

Representative W. B. Francis, of Martin's Ferry has asked the Committee on Invalid Pensions, of which General Sherwood is Chairman, to give immediate consideration to the bill which he has introduced granting a pension of $100 a month to Mrs. Sarah Brandon, of Jacobstown, Belmont county, Ohio.

Mrs. Brandon's case is one of the most remarkable which has come to the attention of the Pension Committee. Her first husband was Charles Brandon, a soldier of the Mexican war, by whom she had 22 children. Upon his death she married William Sweney, who had 11 children, thus making their combination family consist of 33 children.

Sixteen of Mrs. Brandon's sons enlisted in various regiments, chiefly from Ohio, and one son, John Brandon, Company F, Fifteenth Ohio Volunteers, died in Andersonville Prison. He was her chief support, and it is on account of his death that she now draws $12 a month pension.

Mrs. Brandon is now 114 years of age, according to the authenticated records, is in feeble health and poor circumstances. She is almost helpless and requires the assistance of an attendant. Under ordinary circumstances the rule of the committee would not allow the amount asked for in the Francis bill, but as the case is remarkable, appeals have been made for a liberal allowance, in this instance. General Sherwood's committee has the matter under consideration, and while the amount of gratuity has not been fixed the bill will soon be reported and passed.

A group picture of Mrs. Brandon's 16 sons who entered the Union Army now hangs in the Statehouse at Columbus as an exhibit representing the greatest number of soldiers from one family to enlist from any state.

OILING ORDINANCE PASSED BY COUNCIL

Brief Session Held Wednesday Night and Ordinance Passed to Rid City of Dust Nuisance by Oiling All Streets Where Two-thirds of Property Owners Petition for Same.

One of the first times in a great many years when all members of Council were present at a meeting held for the consideration of one matter, was that of Wednesday night when Council met to pass an ordinance to oil the streets, alleys, roadways and squares of the city.

Upon motion of Rothrock the oiling ordinance, which had been prepared by Solicitor Rankin, was placed upon its first reading. The ordinance provides for the oiling of all streets, subject to a petition from a majority of the property owners in districts containing not less than 5,000 square yards of surface.

Upon application of a majority of the property owners, a contract for sprinkling the entire district is made, including the sprinkling of alleys, street intersections and the like. The ordinance was to be in effect for a period of five years, but objection was made to this proviso, which was changed to one year, so that no misunderstanding might be made in the length of contracts, or to limit contracts for oiling to one year.

The assessment for sprinkling with oil is to be paid within 30 days after the contract is made, and in one installment. Those who do not pay within the specified time will find an additional five per cent. penalty attached.

During the discussion it was asked if the oiling was to be done subject to the approval of the Service Director, and the Solicitor held that the Service Director was the proper person to see that the oiling was done in the right manner.

Fred Mark asked what would be done if it was found that territory had been taken up in such a manner that less than a 5,000 square yard district remained, and inquired if the districts could be made smaller. It was brought out that the law required that the districts be not less than 5,000 square yards.

The ordinance was eventually passed by a unanimous vote, after which adjournment was taken.

The Rat and His Board Bill

What composes his bill-of-fare? Anything and everything. He is practically omnivorous and eternally hungry. In the West Indies rats have destroyed hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of coffee, oranges and bananas on plantations; in Japan millions of dollars worth of rice. In Germany, rat losses amount to fifty million dollars a year; in the United States, 160 million dollars a year.

Rats eat seed and grain of all kind, flour, meat and food products made from them; fruits and garden vegetables, mushrooms, the bark of growing trees, bulbs, roots, stems, leaves and even flowers of plants; eggs, chicks, ducklings, squabs, young rabbits, milk, butter and cheese; fresh and salt meats, etc. This great variety of food explains the ease with which rats adapt themselves to any environment.

Experiments show that the average quantity of grain consumed by a full grown rat is fully two ounces daily. A half grown rat eats just about as much. Fed on grain a rat eats from forty-five to fifty pounds a year. Worse yet, they destroy pollute and render unfit for human consumption much more than they actually eat.

ST. MORITZ is the most famous of all resorts for the devotees of winter sports, such as coasting, tobogganing, curling and skiing. The last named is not merely a sport, but a means of locomotion in the village streets with their frequent steep pitches, so that the baker's boy makes his rounds with the ungainly strips of seasoned ash strapped to his feet with all attracting more attention than a messenger boy on a bicycle would here. In spite of its huge hotels St. Moritz still retains many of the characteristics of a Swiss village, and of a Sunday afternoon baker's boy and "duke's son, son of a hotel cook," not to mention a few royal princes, may be seen chugging or tobogganing on the same slope. These are sports that level all ranks in more ways than one.

Rats are very fond of matches, especially those whose ends are dipped in paraffine, and by gnawing them, serious fires often occur. Fires and great losses in mills and warehouses have been traced to the spontaneous ignition of greasy, oily rags or waste carried under floors by mice.

But the commonest way in which rats cause fires is by gnawing away the insulating covering from electric wires passing under floors or inside of partitions, using the insulating materials for nests. Insurance companies a few years ago estimated the fire loss in the United States due to defective wiring, or rather insulation of wires at fifteen million dollars yearly, and since rats and mice are the chief agents in impairing insulation after the wires are in place, the bulk of this sum can be charged to them. DAVE HEIGLE AND FIVE OTHERS ARE INDICTED

TWO INDICTMENTS ARE SECRET

Grand Jury Finishes Work Wednesday Evening, Examining 48 Witnesses Covering Seven Cases, and Three Cases Are Ignored.

After three days' incessant labor the April Grand Jury completed its labor late Wednesday afternoon, and filed a partial report, returning four true bills involving six persons, and ignoring three other cases.

In all over 18 witnesses were examined during the three days, and the jail was visited and found in good condition. The jury was dismissed subject to call.

One of the indictments was against Dave Heigle, charging him with raping his own daughter, Lena Heigle, on the 23rd day of last May. Heigle was arrested in Marysville several weeks ago upon the charge, tried before Mayor Smith and bound over to the grand jury. The charges were perferred by the Humane Society of Cincinnati. The penalty for the offense is a heavy one.

The other indictment made public was that of a charge of burglary and larceny against Ed Burnett, Berrell Devore, and Thurman Palmer, who were also bound over from Mayor Smith's court.

These three young men are charged with entering the D. T. & I. baggage room on the night of January 30, and stealing purses, match safes, bill books, card cases and other leather goods belonging to the Elwood Myers company of Springfield, the total value of the goods being $35.85.

This is the case in which a keg of beer was consumed, regardless of the fact that the night man was in either the same room or an adjoining room during the time. The keg of beer was also the property of another party, it is claimed.

At the time of the hearing, a great deal of interest centered upon the case, and the evidence was very much against the trio. Others suspected established their innocence and were allowed to go free.

The other two indictments will probably be made public within a short time.

MERE GIRL IS RULER

Grand Duchess Marie Succeeds Father on Throne.

Although Luxembourg's New Sovereign Has Not as Yet Reached Her Eighteenth Birthday, She is to Head Smallest Nation.

Berlin.—By the death of William Alexander, Grand Duke of Luxembourg, the crown of the little principality passes to his eldest daughter, the Grand Duchess Marie, a girl who has not yet reached the eighteenth anniversary of her birth.

This young girl may in the near future have to wrestle with some very complicated international problems of the greatest importance. The years of her childhood have been gloomy, and it cannot be said that the outlook is very bright for Luxembourg as a nation.

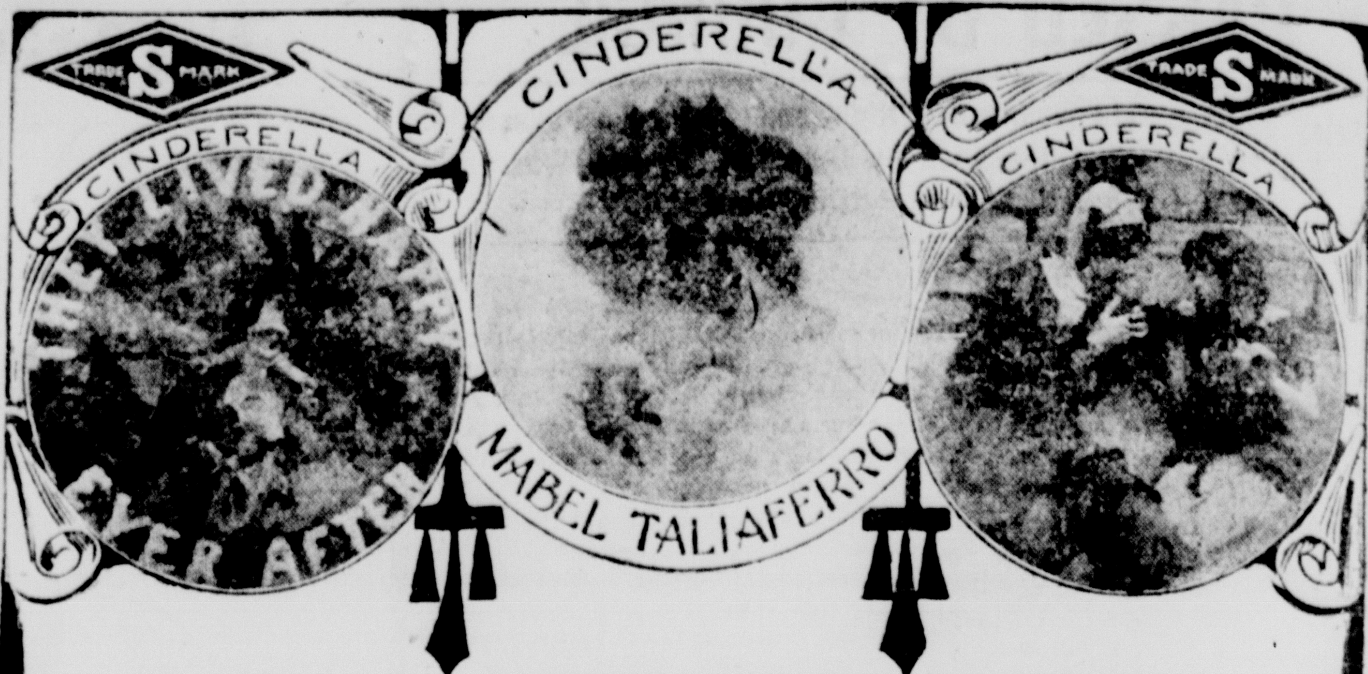

For the last ten years the grand duchess's father, Wilhelm Alexander, had been an invalid. A few weeks after his accession to the throne he was stricken with apoplexy. For five years he had seldom been removed from his bed and his wife, the Princess Maria Anna, infant of Portugal, and his daughters hardly ever left the castle of Hohenberg in upper Bavaria, where in the peace of the mountains and forests physicians were trying to save him from his fate. In the city of Luxembourg as well as in Berlin, Munich and Vienna the grand duchess and her children were strangers. They could not with propriety attend any social functions. The grand duke, too weak to be brought back to his own country, found himself to all purposes an exile in Bavaria. This is why, except the fact that she is a rather gifted musician, very little is known concerning the personality of the young duchess.

For the first time in its history Luxembourg will have a ruler born on its own soil. Grand Duchess Marie was born in the capital on June 14, 1894. One of the smallest independent nations in the world, Monaco alone having a smaller area, Luxembourg had always been ruled by foreign princes.

Strangely enough the national anthem of the grand duchy begins with the words, "We'll always remain what

CARLOAD NATIONAL VACUUM CLEANERS FOR HERALD READERS

MAKE YOUR HOMES DUSTLESS AND SANITARY.

No member of your family is wholly safe from contagious diseases until every particle of dust and dirt is removed. To be safe your home should be DUSTLESS.

SPECIAL OFFER.

The Herald Publishing Co. has received a large number of these wonderful labor-saving cleaners, regular retail price $10.50, which it offers to every reader on easy terms.

WHY YOU NEED THE NATIONAL

No home can be healthfully clean without a NATIONAL.

Think of the countless number of Disease Germs in the dust of the ordinary room. Would you free yourself from this ever-present danger?

No other invention has ever done so much for absolute safety in the home by doing away with dirt and disease.

Some Good Points

Weight only 4½ pounds and can be operated with either right or left hand.

Has patented flexible nozzle. Held at any height it works satisfactorily.

Has a stronger suction than other cleaners and gets not only the SURFACE dirt, but also the dirt that is IN and BENEATH the floor covering.

It takes only ONE person to handle this machine and it is easier to operate than any other cleaner.

A child can operate it.

Think how the wear and tear of your furniture and curtains will be saved by not having dust in your carpets. Use this Cleaner and have a sanitary home.

Removes all disease germs from the carpets that are brought into the house on the shoes.

Absolute cleanliness if you use this vacuum cleaner.

Anyone who can afford a broom can now afford the best vacuum cleaner made for operation by one person.

By the easy payment plan, the NATIONAL costs less per week than you pay for broom and carpet sweeper, and it's ten times more thorough. The maker's guarantee is absolute. If within one year, any part of the machine breaks or shows defect, it will be promptly replaced.

You are paying the price of a vacuum cleaner now, anyway, whether you have one or not—paying it in needless house-cleaning, paying it in hard sweeping and dusting, paying it in the damage which dust does to your carpets and rugs.

A few cents will save this waste.

If you wish to take advantage of this splendid offering, act now while you are thinking about it.

GUARANTEE.—We guarantee this Vacuum Cleaner to be free from mechanical defects and will replace without charge any parts proving defective in material or workmanship for a period of one year from date of purchase.

We will furnish one National Vacuum Cleaner and deliver The Daily Herald in Washington for 6 months:
Or, mail The Daily Herald to any address outside of Washington one year;
Or, mail The Ohio State Register anywhere three years.

OHIO HAPPENINGS

Pen Has Chinese Boarder.

Columbus, O., April 11.—The first Chinaman who has been in the penitentiary for four years past was received at that institution when Yen Pang, a young Oriental, neatly dressed, walked into the prison detaining room, handcuffed to another prisoner. Both of them were brought in from Cleveland by the deputy sheriff of Cuyahoga county. Pang to serve three years for shooting to kill one Dar Gin, a Chinese merchant who refused to pay tribute to the Hop Sing Tong.

Big Mine Deal Floated.

St. Clairsville, O., April 11.—The property of the Belmont Coal Mining company, consisting of 8,000 acres of land and three modern mines and valuable surface land, was transferred to a company called the No. 8 Coal company, said to be composed of Cleveland and Pittsburgh capitalists. The consideration named is $1, but the deal involves $3,000,000 or more.

Suicide Is Epidemic.

Sandusky, O., April 11.—The third suicide by hanging within 48 hours was discovered when the body of Charles Schuster, a wealthy farmer, aged 30, was found suspended by a rope in his barn. Schuster, it is believed, had brooded over the hanging of John Selling, a neighbor. John P. Brown was the third suicide.

Mark Slater Wants Out.

Columbus, O., April 11.—Renewed efforts to obtain the release from the penitentiary on parole of Mark Slater, former superintendent of state printing, are expected as a result of recommendations of several physicians who have visited him at the penitentiary. Slater's sentence would expire Feb. 2, 1913.

Couldn't Stand "Kidding."

Cincinnati, O., April 11.—Because she says she was joked about being a big eater, Helen Meyers, 16, ran away from her home in Sistersville, W. Va., and was arrested here and held for her father. She was found asleep by detectives in a car bound for Versailles, Ind. where she expected to get work.

Auto Accident Is Fatal.

Dayton, O., April 11.—Henry Myer, 65, was killed and his son Harold fatally injured in an automobile accident on the Alexandria pike near here. Myer was formerly a tobacco merchant of Cincinnati, but retired lately and lived on a farm near Dayton.

Escape Injury In Explosion.

Youngstown, O., April 11.—The home of Vic Loptinco at Hillsville was wrecked by an explosion of dynamite, and the nine members of Loptinco's family narrowly escaped. Jim Tomisotto, with three others, have been arrested.

About
Excursions

Ohio Commission Wants to Know About Sunday Excursions.

Columbus, O., April 11.—The state public utilities commission has called a meeting of passenger traffic managers of the Pennsylvania, Baltimore & Ohio, New York Central, Chesapeake & Ohio and Hocking Valley lines for April 16, in Columbus, to inquire if the report that no summer excursions will be run this summer is true.

Attorney General Hogan will be present at the conference, and if the railroads refuse to operate excursions, Chairman Goethin of the commission says that Hogan will be asked to take legal steps, if possible, to compel them to do so.

"A large proportion of Ohio's population can not afford to pay 2 cents a mile straight, and excursions give them their only opportunity to visit other cities," said Goethin. "We intend to protect the common people's interests."

Newberry Unseated.

Bar City, Mich., April 11.—Truman H. Newberry, selected temporary chairman of the Republican state convention, was unseated at a meeting of 16 members of the state committee. The committee also passed on the credentials of the delegates from Wayne and Calhoun counties and voted to seat the Taft men. As a result two conventions, one of Roosevelt and the other of Taft delegates, is the outlook for today.

Railway Inspector Killed.

Pittsburg, April 11.—William Tarris, an inspector of the Pittsburg Railways company, died in a hospital from injuries received while he was examining the track in Etna. He had stooped over when a man whose identity has not been learned, slipped up from behind and drew a razor across his throat. Tarris ran after his assailant and chased him through the streets until he fell from loss of blood.

Canal Will Eat Money.

Washington, April 11.—The outgo of Uncle Sam's cash on the Panama canal when the great waterway is in operation will be over $30,000,000 a year, according to a statement made before the senate committee by Emory R. Johnson, special commissioner on Panama traffic and tolls by appointment of President Taft.

and probate courts. Reference to justices of the peace is stricken from the constitution and the legislature is thus given power to establish courts inferior to the common pleas and probate courts.

The legislature also is given power to provide that proceedings of administrative officers may be reviewed directly in state offices.

It is provided that when supreme judges divide equally on any case from the courts of appeals, the division shall constitute an affirmance.

It is provided that all save one of the judges of the supreme court shall be necessary to hold a statute unconstitutional except in affirming a court of appeals which holds a law valid. In this instance only three of the judges would be necessary to knock out a law.

The supreme court is given jurisdiction to issue writs of prohibition, directing inferior courts to abstain from certain proceedings. The court is given in addition the writ of certiorari, a power long possessed by the United States supreme court, by which it may take from inferior courts to itself cases of great public interest.

Courts May Be Increased.

The number of courts of appeals may be increased from eight to such number as the legislature sees fit. Their original jurisdiction shall not be different from that of the circuit courts except that they are given the writ of prohibition. Trial as in the first instance of equity cases, which they now have, is denied them. Upon weight of the evidence the judges of the courts of appeals may reverse the common pleas courts only by unanimous decisions. In case a decision upon which a court of appeals has agreed is in conflict with a decision in another circuit, the judges are directed to certify the record to the supreme court for decision.

The constitution adopted the Earnhart proposal to establish double liability of stockholders in state banks, the same liability as is enforced against stockholders in national banks. The proposal carried an amendment aimed at private banks, which provides that no individual or institution which is not subject to state inspection shall use the term "bank."

An effort to get through an amendment to permit the general assembly to establish some form of bank deposit guarantee failed.
